Reds and Blues Saturday Hold Luncheon to Plan Battle For Members.

The red and blue committees eagaged in the work of increasing the membership of the Young Men's Christian association by way of competition, held separate sessions in the Sheldon dining rooms Saturday at noon and worked out details of their respective campaigns. Both committees agreed to a foint meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Monday evening at 7.30 colock. The reds under the captainty of S. W. Daniels, will hold a special session at the Y. M. C. A. this evening at 8 colock.

Hoth rommittees plan to have a war strength company of 50 men each to carry on their campaign. This number of men will be divided into squade of five and six, with a member of the executive committee as leader. The general chairman of the campaign is A. E. Grambling, while the referre is H. B. Durkee, general secretary of the association.

The reds who lunched at the Sheldon e F. B. Fietzher, captain: Robert lin, Wm. R. Walker, L. M. Steven-W. E. Walkern, H. E. Curistie, J. ry Henderson, A. H. Valkennar and

Harry Henderson, A. H. Valkennar and E. E. Fleicher. The block, who occupied another din-ing room, were S. W. Daniels, captain; J. B. Buckley, F. E. Clarke, W. L. Fox-worth, George Mee, E. L. W. Polk, Frank Pickrell, Oscar Block, J. C. Hill and H. W. Staub.
